Report

The importance of negotiation skills is present in every sphere of life, but these skills are particularly important in the business world. The ability to negotiate well is a highly coveted leadership skill in today's competitive market. Having strong negotiation skills can be the difference between closing a lucrative deal or a loss.

Negotiation skills are useful not only in our professional lives but are also helpful in daily life. Learning to negotiate effectively involves acquiring a variety of relationship management skills including communication, strategy development, persuasion, conflict resolution, decision-making, and rapport building. Specifically, in order to achieve successful outcomes, negotiators must analyze a problem taking into account the interests of each party and identify the priorities of its counter-party.

In order to enhance negotiation skill among the students, T & P Cell conducted Skill Development Program on "Negotiation Skills" from 7/10/2016 to 8/10/2016 by Mr. Girdhar Mohan, Cocubes Technologies.

All B.Tech IV Year Students actively Participated in the Program and they came to know that how Negotiation skills are important to professional and daily life.

Report

Self-confidence impacts the whole personality and life of a person. This is why the importance of self-confidence cannot be denied or neglected. Self-confidence not only has a huge impact on different areas of a person's life but also impacts every smaller function of our daily lives. The following points highlight the importance of self-confidence.

The Resource person from FACE Academy addressed the following points in the session:

Confidence is directly linked with healthy coping mechanisms a person adopts in difficult times, failures, and setbacks. A student's life is full of struggles and hardships. Self-confidence means to continue to trust in abilities and motivation to work harder to change those difficult situations instead of giving up that even when the situations are hard. It develops resilience in students to carry on their struggling period, bravely.

How can one improve self-confidence?

There is no doubt over the importance of self-confidence and how it brings a positive change in everyone's life. However, everyone wants to improve their confidence so that they can do better.
